

The Queenslander Pictorial.

"Christmas Boxes" for the Enemy.

Rushing up the shells to the British guns on the Western Front.

British motor machine gun batteries leaving camp in answer to a signal.

THE TEMPLE OF HEAVEN ONE OF THE WONDERS OF CHINA.

SEE

PAGE 26

P. 13-14

General view of the Temple of Heaven
in Peking.

A section of the Temple of Heaven.

Remarkable Battle Photographs.

BRITISH ARMY PHOTO.

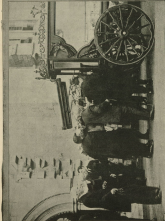

British wiring party going up to wire newly captured ground.

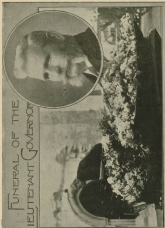

The British Regimental Sergeant-Major came along, carried by four German prisoners, shouting to the reserves "Zing, up! Good boys! Let 'em have it!"

FUNERAL OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The Coffin leaving St. James' Cathedral after the services.

Home of the deceased.

The Carriage passing the General Post Office.

Procession to the Cathedral—the Governor's Car leading.

Special

STAFF OF OREGON HOSPITAL FOR THE DEAF, BLIND AND DUMB.

Chief Nurse has been for two years in a hospital. Mrs. Miller, who sits on the right, is now in the center of the group. Female N. Miller, who sits on the left, was with the first company of Oregonians, and is now in the center of the group.

BOUND FOR THE OTHER SIDE.

Eighteenth Reinforcements for the Twenty-fifth Battalion.

Sally Reinforcements for the Forty-first Battalion.

CHRISTMAS DAY IN THE DESERT 1915

TRAVELLING SHEEP.

A. JAMES, photo.

AN OLD FELLOW.
The latest portrait of William B. Gellie, the well-known member of Queensland and New South Wales of the London School of Art, for one admitted to the Royal Society. The gentleman, however, continues to be known in Queensland.

THE BILL OF BOWEN.

THE LATE MAJOR, MR. LEWIS.
Major in Artillery—late page 15.

CAPTAIN R. LEWIS.
Late in Artillery.

THE LATE MAJOR, MR. LEWIS.

—Photo. study by C. Hall, Windsor.

Supplement to the Christmas Queenslander, December 2, 1916.

QUEENSLAND BUTTERFLIES and Insects.